The Abouts

Free Dog Wines is a northwest wine brand that wants to take the formality, pretentiousness, and exclusivity out of the wine scene and make it simple, comfortable and as easy as your day off, after all those catch-up chores are done. Located in the Sunny Slope area of Caldwell, Idaho, we offer tastings of dry whites, dry reds and sweet wines for any palate.

The Job

The wine guide's (wg) main responsibility is promoting and educating the public about free dog wines. This could include on and off-premise wine tasting, sales, and events. It may also include educating the public on the Idaho wine region and the Snake River Valley area.

The wine guide will provide exceptional customer service to all guests, including the four-legged ones! The wg should strive to establish a connection with every person that comes in the tasting room and inspire multifaceted conversations. They will encourage guests to purchase wine, attend events, and join our subscription club as well as making the visit as memorable, and comfortable, as possible to every guest.

Additionally, the wg will be responsible for an assortment of cleaning, maintenance and inventory duties that are on a daily scheduled rotation. Due to the nature of this position, the wg should be able to lift up to 50lbs, maneuver stairs, reach above their head, and serve wine for long periods of time.
